

Walden Earthcare Congress
40 Slow Street - Suite C-8
Concord, MA 01742

" . . . In wildness is the preservation of the world"
- Henry David Thoreau

APRIL 19-22

WALDEN EARTHCARE CONGRESS

a special conference presented by the Center for American Studies at Concord

Concord & Lincoln, MA

8:00-10:00 Evening Reflections

"The Walden Heritage"

Arun Gandhi, grandson of the Mahatma

"The Land Ethic & Protection of Wilderness"

George Frampton, President, The Wilderness Society

Stone Church, Lincoln

Saturday, April 21 John Muir's Birthday

9:00-11:00 Panel discussion:

Life-Sustaining Uses of Technology

Agni Vlavianos-Arvanitis, Founder/President of

Biopolitics International Organization;

Professor Nicholas Ashford,

Environmental Policy Program, MIT;

Paul Bureau, Director, Energy & Environment

Department, Monsanto Plastics & Resins, Co.

Alcott Elementary School

11:15-12:30 Walden Declaration: Small group sessions to draft principles and guidelines for conservation action

12:30 LUNCH

Alcott Elementary School

2:00-3:00 Report on the Salzburg Seminar/Greeley Foundation Conference on Global Environmental Decision Making

Ruth Salinger, President, Greeley Foundation

Alcott Elementary School, Concord

3:15-5:00 Plenary & Small Group Discussion

Building Bridges: Establishment of an ongoing Walden Earthcare Network & finalizing of the Walden Declaration

Alcott Elementary School, Concord

6:30 DINNER

Stone Church, Lincoln

Presentation of the Thoreau-Muir Wilderness Prize,

Presenter: Paul Brooks, environmentalist and author

Recipient: David Brower, founder Friends of the Earth founder and president, Earth Island Institute

8:30 "Concord Sonata" by Charles Ives

Stephen Drury, pianist

Stone Church, Lincoln