The ceremony of awarding Professor Agni Vlavianos-Arvanitis dedicated to 25th anniversary of the Chernobyl disaster

News Text:

On June 16, 2011 the formal ceremony of awarding Professor Agni Vlavianos-Arvanitis, the President of the Biopolitics International Organization with the honorary diploma was held in the Embassy of Ukraine to the Hellenic Republic. She was awarded for her personal contribution to the elimination of the consequences of the Chernobyl accident as well as for her significant achievements in the sphere of working and social activities dedicated to 25th anniversary of the Chernobyl disaster.

The diploma was transmitted by H.E. Ambassador of Ukraine to the Hellenic Republic Mr. V. Shkurov on behalf of H.E. Minister of Emergencies of Ukraine Mr. V. Baloga.

While transmitting the abovementioned diploma the Ambassador of Ukraine noted considerable experience and scientific achievements of Professor Vlavianos-Arvanitis stressing that Ukraine very much appreciates the activities of the Professor which are aimed at strengthening the Ukrainian-Greek relations in overcoming the consequences of the Chernobyl accident. He also noted the international events organized by the Biopolitics International Organization such as the Conference dedicated to 11th anniversary of the Chernobyl disaster (1997) and several other similar events.

In turn, the Professor expressed sincere gratitude to the Ukrainian Government and personally to the Ambassador of Ukraine for such a positive evaluation of her efforts and assured that she is planning to further contribute and support the development of Ukrainian-Greek cooperation, in particular in the sphere of overcoming the consequences of the Chernobyl disaster.

The event was attended by the members of the Biopolitics International Organization as well as by the diplomats of the Embassy of Ukraine.
