A multipliers training event was successfully implemented by the Biopolitics International Organisation (B.I.O.) in the framework of the “Pro Dialogue” Erasmus+ project. The training event was part of the project’s pilot phase, which aims to further develop innovative instruments for combating hate speech and fake news through the intercultural dialogue of citizens.

Two (2) training sessions were held on 07/05/2021. The sessions were conducted by B.I.O.’s trainers and took place at the IASIS Training Center (18 Dimitrakopoulou St., Ano Patissia) in Athens.

The goal of the training event was to: i) deliver information on the “Pro Dialogue – Combating hate speech and fake news through the intercultural dialogue of citizens” project and its deliverables (IO1-Curriculum for Dialogue Conductors/Dialogators, IO2-Toolkit for Dialogue Conductors/Dialogators, IO3-Blended Learning Course Toolkit for Dialogue Conductors/Dialogators) to the participants; ii) train Greek multipliers by giving them a modern, interdisciplinary perspective on the extent and magnitude of the problem of hate speech and fake news in Europe today; and, iii) propose solutions through education and social dialogue within communities.

Fifteen (15) participants successfully completed the training program. The Biopolitics International Organisation (B.I.O.) is looking forward to the next steps of the project.
